Comments:

- This bill creates the Partnerships for Healthy Communities Grant Program to improve longterm health outcomes for children through the formation of public-private partnerships that address the social determinants of health and use existing data to align and improve efforts focused on early childhood benchmarks for success. The bill provides that to apply for a grant under the program, an applicant partnership shall be composed of the following partners: a local health care provider; a local community based organization that facilitates access to housing, food, transportation, or other relevant services; the Department of Health or a local health department; a community-based early childhood organization; two parent or legal guardian representatives from the target community; and any other partner, including a mental health organization, if the partnership determines that the partner is integral to accomplish objectives. Subject to legislative appropriations, the Governor's Early Childhood Commission shall award matching grants (one-to-one match, cash or in-kind) to applicant partnerships that enter into a memorandum of understanding to implement a partnership that: engages an anchor institution; develops a sustainable plan; reduces long-term health care costs; improves an identified health disparity; and improves outcomes for children from age zero to six. This bill appropriates: $2,000,000 ongoing to the Department of Workforce Services.

Comments:

- This resolution acknowledges that, despite the enactment of the Utah Medical Cannabis Act, cannabis plant extracts remain classified as Schedule I controlled substances under federal law; recognizes that the illegality of cannabis under federal law restricts the medical cannabis industry's legal access to financial institutions' banking services; warns of the dangers associated with businesses that operate entirely in cash; and urges the President and Congress to remove the barriers that prohibit the medical cannabis industry from legally accessing banking services.
